

The Eight Expectations of G. E.
Lyrics written by Paula Washington

(Chorus)

G. E.,
Tall oaks from little acorns grow, G. E.
A way to live and learn and grow,
To give your life some zing,
You'll want to shout and sing...
The Eight Expectations of G. E.

Oh, well, we'll
Value one another,
treat each one just like a brother.
We'll show tolerance in many ways.
We'll give our peers their daily praise.
We'll use put ups and not put downs.
We'll make extinct those awful frowns.
We'll use good manners, "Please" and "Thank you,"
Random acts of kindness shown too.
Expectations 1, 2, 3
Are in us through and through.
We'll cheer each other to success,
Encourage others' personal best
We'll model every practice of G. E.

(Chorus)

Oh, well, for
Every effort, we'll applaud.
We'll celebrate, and say, "Cum Laude."
Demonstrate the principles
Of life, that's only sensible!
Our character will oft reflect
Our attitude of great respect
And honesty and care and giving -
Qualities of virtuous living.

Expectations 1 through 8
Make ours a better state!
The magic triad we'll apply -
A smile, kind words, a big high five
We'll model every practice of G. E.
