

Ten Commandments For Living With People

1. Speak to people.

Nothing is so nice as a cheerful greeting.

2. Smile at people.

It takes 72 muscles to frown, fourteen to smile.

3. Call people by name.

The sweetest sound is one's own name.

4. Be friendly and helpful.

If you want friends, be a friend.

5. Be cordial.

Speak and act in such a way as to demonstrate everything you do is a genuine pleasure.

6. Be genuinely interested in people.

Just try, and you can like almost everyone.

7. Be generous with praise.

And be courteous with criticism.

8. Be considerate of others.

There are often three sides to a controversy: yours, his, and the right side.

9. Be alert to give help.

What we do for others' lives is immortal.

10. Add to all this a good sense of humor, loads of patience, and a dash of humility, and you will be rewarded many fold.
