

“I Cannot Say I” Activity

- 1) Participants will mingle to music and when the music stops, pair up and take turns discussing the given topic.
- 2) Participants cannot use the words: I, me, my, or mine.
- 3) If at any point they say these words, they must return to
- 4) their seats.
- 5) Everyone still standing will mingle again when the music begins, find a new partner, and repeat the process.

Topic examples:

Describe:

How you want to celebrate your birthday.

Your favorite t.v. show

Your favorite place to go for fun

How to play your favorite game

Variation:

Give each student 3-5 stickers on sheet.

Follow instructions above, but when learners use one of the words: I, me, my, or mine, he/she must give up one of their stickers to that partner before they move on to another partner. The learner who receives the sticker puts it on their hand.
