Hips and Lips

Line Procedure Song

(Sung to the tune of Barney's "I Love You" song)

"Hips and Lips, Hips and Lips"

"Hips and Lips is what is best...."

"With a finger on your lips and a hand on you Hip"

"Hips and Lips is what is best."

Created by Emily Singleton, Kindergarten teacher

Tune: Gilligan's Island

My hands are folded behind my back

I am standing straight and tall

I am quietly looking straight ahead
I am ready for the hall!

Another Poem Version:

My hands are resting by my sides,
I'm standing straight and tall.
My eyes are front; my lips are zipped,
I'm ready for the hall.

The Line Up Poem

I will not shove,
I will not push,
I will not try to pass.
I will not stay behind the rest,
I'll line up with my class.

*********

Hands down,
Turn around,
Face the door,
And say no more.

Hallway Chant: Tune: Doo Wah Ditty

Here we go just a walking down the hall
Singing doo wah ditty ditty dum ditty do
We're so quiet when we're walking down the hall
Singing doo wah ditty ditty dum ditty do

We LOOK GOOD (look good)
LOOK FINE (look fine)
See us walking in a line
Singing doo wah ditty ditty dum ditty do,
doo wah ditty ditty dum ditty do!

Tune: Oh Susanna

When it's time to get in line I stand so straight and tall.
My arms are right down by my side; I never move them at all.
My head is facing forward,
My eyes look straight ahead.
My lips are closed,
My ears are open, listening to what's said!
