

GE Videos for Online Instruction!

Do you want to be a more effective virtual teacher?
The Virtual Learning Video Series can show you the way!

- Building Community in a Virtual Environment
Building relationships and community within your learning environment is key to the success of all students. Come explore different ways to build community through the use of virtual team building activities and icebreakers.
- Connecting with Others in a Virtual Environment
From breakout rooms to annotation tools, connecting with others in a virtual learning environment is just a click away! Come explore ways to use grouping features and annotations to connect with others.
- A Culture of Respect in a Virtual Environment
A culture of respect is vital to any learning environment. Come explore different ways to implement the Culture of Respect domain in a virtual learning environment.
- Academic Excellence in a Virtual Environment
Educators are responsible for providing academic excellence for all students. Come explore different ways to implement the Academic Excellence domain in a virtual learning environment.
- Virtual Assessment
Assessment can provide information to help move a student forward in their understanding of content. Assessing in a virtual learning environment can come with its challenges. Come learn practical ways to assess learning in a virtual environment.

$25 for each single video or buy all five for $100.

Buy Online

<http://www.greatexpectations.org/training/trainingvideos/>

