

IDEAS FOR WORK DISPLAYS

Work displays showcase learners' efforts and successes. Wall, digital, or any creative display can be a opportunity for learners to present and critique their own work. It may include a title, summary of the objective, and positive commentary from the author of the work and even members of the learning community.

1. A class display book can represent all members of the class and display their work.

Directions for class display book:

- a) Select an appropriate three-ringed binder
- b) Decorate the book with class name, motto, a quote, etc
- c) Place a clear page protector in the book for each member of the clas plus 5 extras, just in case new student arrive during the year
- d) Each learner is allowed two selected pieces of work to display in their page protector. Work should reflect a high quality of effort
- e) Each learner is responsible for changing work as their skills an interests change.
- f) Display the book in the classroom for visitors and parents to admire.

2. Individual Plastic Sleeves - Learners select the work to be displayed.

3. Designated Display Area - Each learner has designated space to display work.

4. Thematic Display

4. Display of Events and Successes Connecting with Technology

5. Project-based Learning Products - i.e. Dioramas, science boards, etc.

6. Student presentations

7. Sharing Through Technology

- 12 Educational Apps to Create Digital Portfolios
- Seesaw - a free app for educators compatible with Google Classroom. Students get excited to choose from Seesaw's creative tools. They express themselves, reflect on their learning and create a portfolio they're proud to show others.
- BackChannel Chat - a safe secure classroom discussion app. The teacher sets it up and learners join with a code.