The Eight Expectations

- 1. We will value one another as unique and special individuals.
- 2. We will not laugh at or make fun of a person's mistakes nor use sarcasm or putdowns.
- 3. We will use good manners, saying "please," "thank you," and "excuse me" and allow others to go first.
- 4. We will cheer each other to success.
- 5. We will help one another whenever possible.
- 6. We will recognize every effort and applaud it.
- 7. We will encourage each other to do our best.
- 8. We will practice virtuous living, using the Life Principles.

17 Practices

- 1. Educators and learners model desired behaviors and attitudes such as those set forth in the Life Principles and the Eight Expectations for Living.
- 2. Educators and learners speak in complete sentences and address one another by name, demonstrating mutual respect and common courtesy.
- 3. Learners are taught thoroughly and to mastery, insuring success for all. Whole group instruction is interwoven with flexible group instruction and individual instruction.
- 4. Learning experiences are integrated, related to the real world, reviewed consistently and connected to subsequent curricula.
- 5. Critical thinking skills are taught.
- 6. The environment is non-threatening and conducive to risk-taking. Mistakes are viewed as opportunities to learn and grow.
- 7. Memory work, recitations, and/or writing occur daily. These enhance character development and effective communication skills while extending curricula.
- 8. Enriched vocabulary is evident and is drawn directly from challenging writing and/or wisdom literature.
- 9. The Magic Triad, a positive and caring environment, and discipline with dignity and logic are evident.
- 10. Learner's work is displayed in some form. Positive and timely feedback is provided through oral and/or written commentary.
- 11. Word identification skills are used as a foundation for expanding the use of the English language.
- 12. Learners assume responsibility for their own behavior. Their choices determine consequences.
- A school, class, or personal creed is recited or reflected upon daily to reaffirm commitment to excellence.
- 14. All learners experience success. The educator guarantees it by comparing learners to their own past performance, not the performance of others. Learners are showcased, and past failures are disregarded.
- 15. Educators teach on their feet, thus utilizing proximity. They engage learners personally, hold high expectations of learners, and should not limit learners to grade level or perceived ability.
- 16. Educators and learners employ effective interpersonal communication skills.
- 17. Educators and Learners celebrate the successes of others.
