

Ms. Tucker's Goal Progress Analysis

My Goal: To have my students write a class creed to use as a goal for personal and class behavior and academic expectations and as part of the standard for resolution of any incidents.

Write specifically what is happening now towards achieving your goal under Opportunity and the Benefits and Obstacles for each where appropriate.

The "Walk the Talk" theme, Walk the Talk Quotes, life principle, Integrity, and tying them in with writing a Creed could not have gone better. Everyone got involved, first with the researching different creeds idea in the Practice 13 Implementation Ideas and then the groups analyzed some of them with the 4 steps in the How to Write a Creed power point. From there we wrote a class creed with each group offering ideas and then collectively deciding on the final wording. Now on to class goal setting. I'm going to let them select some specific areas they see as needing to be addressed like transitioning between classes. Think I'll use one of the Lesson Plans for Introducing Goal Setting to get started.

The class is starting off with a common goal and language to "WALK" through the year. In groups the students used the Mind Map on Creeds to apply what it would look like in the different areas in school. I think this clarification will build a common expectation. I may show the Walk the Talk video as a reminder as needed. I won't have to say anything, just hand out the Student Goal Progress Sheet I for students to do a self-evaluation. A major benefit from this has been the collective effort by everyone. No one can disagree that we each are responsible for 'walking the talk' so I'm hoping this creed will make it easier to encourage and support each other. One student offered suggestions for reminding each other when a situation occurs by asking the question, "What's your talk?" or using the sign language, Walk Talk .
