

GE Class Creed

I am on a mission, with high expectation for a college admission.
Other schools, I'm not disin', but there's certain things missing.

Our class is like a family, you will see a team between them and me,
Built on the concept of GE.

Did I mention I see college in my future with clarity? My plan is built on integrity.

Come follow me, it's quite envy, and it all starts with a little guy, ME, encircled by an opportunity.

Let's get started on this journey.

Don't say, "another year---OH bore! I've heard it all before."

Opportunity is knocking! Open the door! I'm looking for something more.

A bad attitude is such a chore. You can't fight optimism --if it's what you're looking for!

So I ask the question, "Is there success anymore?"

In Ms. _____'s class, college bound students are made.

But I have to plant the tree if I want to enjoy the shade.

Just balance work and play, for my efforts I will be paid

And I'll be who I want to be at the end of the day!

Now's the time, it's up to me. I don't do what others think I should do.

Shakespeare said, "To thy own self be true."

And here's a clue: Mrs. _____ says, work hard, take risks, how far you go is up to you!"

So let's begin, let's get high expectations within!

Put on that grin, life up that chin, I'm learning how to win!

Just one more thing before I end, I can't forget the journey starts within.
